

TOWN OF CLINTON
HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION
November 16, 2022

1. Call to order by chairperson Rose Platt at 6:33 p.m.
2. Attending: Carol Beder, Carol Crawford-Jones, Marcia Hansen, Norma Kania, Holly Leone, and Rose Platt.
3. Approval of October 25, 2022, meeting minute: Holly moved, Norma seconded. Minutes were unanimously approved.
4. New Business
 - a. The Town Historian position is open and will be filled by Holly Leone.
 - b. Elizabeth Cole will be invited to be an alternate member of our Commission.
 - c. Fundraising for our budget (different than grant program)
 - The revenue from our fundraising will go into our budget.
 - Discussion of types of fundraising we may undertake include but not limited to tote bags, carriage rides, and plaques.
 - A $100 check will be sent to the Riverside Cemetery Association for their participation in the haunted cemetery tour.
 - d. Discovery at Guldbrandsen Bldg.
 - Historic papers were uncovered; we will be sifting through them.
 - Resource: Goodspeed Histories has stories of people residing in Hunterdon County and its residents.
 - e. Review Commission By-Laws.
 - f. Preservation of Fretwork, Moldings, Brackets discussion.
 - Our Commission will pursue the preservation of moldings on historic homes.
 - g. We are looking a project called Past Perfect and will compare the cost versus purchasing a terabyte memory stick.
5. Old Business
 - a. Historic Facade Grant
 1. Two residents received grant monies.
 - b. Welcome to Clinton sign update
 - Karen originally painted each sign individually from scratch and cannot be touched up; originally it took her a year and a half to complete the 5 signs.
 - We need to eliminate three signs and retain the Halstead, Center, and a sign entering West Main Street
 - A quote of $5,000 would include an imprint on vinyl.
 - We will seek estimates replacing the three signs.
 - c. Plaque update – still seeking samples
 - d. Fundraising revenue:
 - Garden Party, approximaely$2500
 - Cemetery Tour, approximately $1,400
6. Adjournment: At 7:43 Rose motioned to adjourn; motion was seconded by Norma.
7. Next scheduled Commission meeting is December 7, 2022, at 6:30 p.m. in Municipal Building Annex