Mayor's Comments

Mayor Kovach stated that the 8th Graders from CPS will be walking to the library today to participate in a Food Drive. She invited everyone to attend.

Special Event – Facility Form

A facility form was presented to the Mayor and Council by Chris Rush, a parent of a North Hunterdon Senior. She has organized an event for the evening of November 6, 2020 at Hunts Mill Park. The event will be the streaming of the Milk Can Game. All participants will be required to sign an insurance waiver and COVID form. She will be collecting the forms at the field. There will be social distancing at the field, everyone will be required to wear a mask, and each participant will receive a snack pack. Currently there are 40-50 students that have signed up for the event.

Ms. Karsh and Ms. Johnson expressed their concerns about the enforcement of wearing masks and the possibility of participants that have not signed up for the event showing up. Mayor Kovach said she would be there to make sure that all participants wear a mask. They also expressed a concern as to whether the residents of King's Crossing have been made aware of the event. Mayor Kovach replied that they were.

A motion was made by Ms. Dineen, seconded by Mr. Humphrey to approve the Facility Form.
